

Chapter 2

Reflections to Journal and Share

- How many unanswered “why” questions do you still have in your life?
- Can we totally trust God and rest in the fact that His timing is perfect while our notions or desires are not?
- What do you think Elizabeth’s rearview mirror glimpse into the great “why” question of her life did for her soul?
- Has God ever encouraged you by giving you “glimpses of grace” in the rear view mirror of some of the major issues and events of your life?
- Have you ever wondered about the pleasant surprises that still await you in God’s Providence?
- What case histories of the faith journeys of others has God used to encourage and strengthen you?
- Is faith a verb to you that submits to God’s will and ways regardless of the consequences?
- If you envisioned your faith journey as a case history being written by God to encourage others, would it change the way you approach and live each day?
- What thought(s) challenged you in this encounter? What is God’s Spirit whispering to you? What action is He prompting you to take?
